Flowing Water – Music New to Great Falls

Great Falls, MT, October 29, 2024 “Flowing Water” is a concert series of new music held over the noon hour (12:05-12:55) featuring the original works of local composers performed by local musicians. Many of the pieces were composed specifically for this series. New Hope Lutheran Church, is hosting this Third Series of these concerts. The event is free to the public. Attendees are encouraged to bring their lunch while the site will supply water, coffee, tea and dessert. The concerts follow the Montana Composers’ Alliance Protocols for the presentation of new music where each original piece will be played twice with a Q & A monitored discussion held between performances.

Some of the composers include Lara Detrick, Destin Markland, James F. Rickley, and David Saslav. Featured local performers include Jean Annau, Mark Barry, Bruce Bull, Jake Henneford, Alan Johnson, Christopher Kloker, Destin Markland, Samarra Nicholson, and Wendy Weissman.

This concert and the compositions contained are an effort to expand the horizons of activity within the Great Falls Area featuring the works of Montana composers and artists.

For further information about the event, please contact James F. Rickley at 406-768-8023, james@waywordbound.com or Rev. Tamara Bull, New Hope Lutheran Church pastor at 406-315-1203.
